

Money Experience Summit (MXS) is the premier gathering of finance and fintech leaders, influencers, builders, and connectors. We hope to see you among the industry's dreamers, doers, and disruptors at Snowbird from September 19-21, 2023, for the best event you'll attend this year.

Why Money Experience Summit 2023?

1

Get a jump start on your business strategy with discussions on the road ahead for finance and fintech. Our content is designed to give you a perfect blend of discussions, keynotes, panels, and workshops focused on delivering inspiration, insights, and innovation on the future of our industry. Walk away with actionable information and stay ahead of the curve to inform your strategy.

2

Experience one-of-a-kind activities, workshops, and entertainment. Unlike other industry events or user conferences, we focus on quality over quantity to bring you the best of the best. This means specially curated sessions, hands-on workshops, and unique networking opportunities, with a balance of fun mixed in.

3

Engage with the MX Product Experience Lounge to get real-time answers and insights to solve your business challenges. This isn't a boring user conference. Our focus is bringing you insights and expertise from across the industry. But, we also back this up with MX product leaders and subject matter experts to make sure you can meet your business goals and tackle new opportunities with our latest product innovations.

4

Learn from icons and peers from the most successful financial institutions and fintechs. Founders, CEOs, and leaders from the top banks, credit unions, and fintechs, as well as influencers and experts in our industry attend this conference, with more than 60% of attendees in VP+ roles. Network and learn from everyone that matters. Set in the scenic mountains, we guarantee no distractions, just connections.

5

Get the most bang for your buck. Many industry events can cost thousands in registration fees alone. At MXS, we pack in as much as possible without the exorbitant cost to ensure you get value without breaking the budget.
